

Register to VOTE

Deadline to Register is Oct. 6, 2008.

Check Your Registration and Polling Place

If you are not sure if—
or where—you are registered to vote, contact your county board of election or call
1-866-MYVOTE1
(1-866-698-6831)

VOTE

Nov. 4, 2008

Poll Hours

6:30 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Problems
at the Polls

1-866-OUR-VOTE
(1-866-687-8683)

PROTECT YOUR RIGHTS

If you feel your right to vote
has been violated,
call the Election Protection Hotline
toll free.

1-866-OUR-VOTE
(1-866-687-8683)

Ohio AFL-CIO
Coalition of Black Trade Unionists
Coalition of Labor Union Women
A. Philip Randolph Institute
League of Women Voters Ohio
NAACP Ohio Conference
Advancement Project
American Federation of Government Employees
United Steelworkers
America Votes

395 E. Broad St.
Columbus, OH 43215
614-224-8271

OHIO VOTER
BILL OF RIGHTS

You Have the Right to Vote

OHIO
VOTER PROTECTION COALITION

MY VOTE
MY RIGHT

AFL-CIO

OHIO VOTER BILL OF RIGHTS

VOTE EARLY IN PERSON

You can vote early and in person using an absentee ballot between Sept. 30 and Nov. 3, 2008. Request, receive and vote your ballot at the board of election or at a site designated by the local board of election. You may also apply and request a ballot to mail in by contacting the local board of election.

BRING ID

Identification is required to vote. Identification may include a current and valid photo ID card, military ID or other identification that shows your name and current address, such as a current utility bill, paycheck or bank statement. If you lack the proper ID, you have the right to vote by provisional ballot if you affirm in writing that you are a registered voter in the jurisdiction and eligible to vote in the election.

MOVED TO A NEW ADDRESS

If you have moved within the county and have not changed your address by Oct. 6, you can change your address on Election Day at your new polling location and vote a provisional ballot there. You also have the right to vote by provisional ballot early in person beginning Oct. 7 through Election Day at the local board of election or a site designated by the board of election.

If you moved to another county, on Election Day go to one of the following: the board of elections office in the county in which you now live or a site designated by that board of elections and submit a change-of-address and provisional affirmation statement. You will have to vote a provisional ballot for your new voting address.

ASK FOR ASSISTANCE

If you have a disability, physical limitation or trouble reading or writing, a person of your choice may assist you, except a candidate running for office, your employer or your union.

REPLACEMENT BALLOTS

If you make a mistake while voting, you have the right to ask for a replacement ballot twice before you submit your vote.

STAY IN LINE AND VOTE

If you are in line when the polls close, you have the right to stay and vote a regular ballot.

DON'T LEAVE WITHOUT VOTING

If there is any question regarding your eligibility to vote that cannot be settled on Election Day, you have the right to vote using a provisional ballot.

RIGHTS OF FELONS

A convicted felon who has been released from prison has the right to register or re-register and to vote.

Know Your
VOTING RIGHTS