

Joe Donnelly FIGHTS For Working Families

 Protects Good American Jobs. Joe Donnelly adamantly opposed CAFTA and warned it would result in American job loss. He says that with free trade agreements like these, “The American worker is the one who winds up on the short end of the stick.” (South Bend Tribune, 8/4/05, 8/1/05)

 Fights for Our Health Care. Joe Donnelly understands that health care today is a necessity, not a benefit. “I think every American should have the same health care plan as members of Congress do.”

CHRIS CHOCOLA THREATENS OUR JOBS AND WAGES

Indiana has lost 12,300 manufacturing jobs since Chocola took office—yet he opposes expanding unemployment benefits for workers and supports free trade agreements like CAFTA that send our jobs overseas. He thinks increasing the minimum wage is “problematic” and voted to raid the Social Security Trust Fund. As chairman of CTB International Corp., Chocola cut health care benefits for retirees but gave more than $1 million in bonuses to corporate executives.
