

YOUR VOTING RIGHTS IN TEXAS

- Voter ID. BRING YOUR VOTER REGISTRATION CERTIFICATE. BRING ID if you are a first-time voter who registered by mail and did not provide verification at time of registration. You may provide a valid driver's license, utility bill, bank statement, government check, paycheck or other government document that shows your name and address. If you do not bring your voter certificate, you may affirm you are an eligible voter and sign an affidavit at the poll. If you have no ID, you may cast a provisional ballot.
- Change of residence. If you move within the same county, you may change your address through the secretary of state's office 30 days or more prior to the election. If you miss the deadline, you may vote in your former precinct as long as you still reside in the political subdivision conducting the election. If you move to a different county, you must register to vote in the new county. If your change of address is not yet effective, you may be able to vote a "limited" ballot in your new county of residence on candidates or issues common between your old and new county. You may vote this "limited" ballot after moving and only during early voting by personal appearance (not on Election Day) or by mail, if you were registered to vote in your former county at the time you moved and your registration in your new county is not yet effective.
- Clothing, buttons, caps and other accessories. DO NOT wear a badge, insignia, emblem or other similar communicative device relating to a candidate, measure or political party appearing on the ballot, or to the conduct of the election, in the polling place or within 100 feet of any outside door through which a voter may enter the building in which the polling place is located.
- No-electioneering perimeter. No electioneering is allowed within 100 feet of the polling place.
